Rochester, NY 14621-3007

Closure Date: 04/27/2015

Notes: On Monday, April 27, 2015, Corinthian Colleges, Inc., the parent company for Everest Institute, abruptly ceased operations and discontinued instruction at its New York Campus amid mounting legal problems, fraud allegations and regulatory compliance issues. Following the closure, the company hosted meetings for its active students to provide transcripts and information on their options for continuing their education. As for former students, Corinthian is currently working with the state licensing agency to develop a way for them to obtain their transcripts. The school closed before the attempted sale with Zenith Education Group, Inc. was able to go through.

Student Arrangements: There were no arrangements made to teach out the remaining students.

School is covered by a state tuition recovery fund.

Notes: On Monday, April 27, 2015, Corinthian Colleges, Inc., the parent company for Everest College, abruptly ceased operations and discontinued instruction at all remaining campuses amid mounting legal problems, fraud allegations and regulatory compliance issues. Following the closure, the company hosted meetings for its active students at their respective Everest College campuses to provide transcripts and information on their options for continuing their education. As for former students, Corinthian is currently working with the state licensing agencies to develop a way for them to obtain their transcripts. There is a state tuition recovery fund, but only for cash paying students. Non-AZ residents who attended online are not eligible for the STFR. The change in ownership with Zenith Education Group, Inc. failed to go through.

Student Arrangements: There were no arrangements made to teach out the remaining students.
